THIS WEEK

Commencing 14th May 2018

The A Levels you achieve are on your CV for the rest of your life!

- Don't panic – control what you can control. When you open your envelope in August – you want to be able to say, hand on heart, that you did everything you could – you gave yourself the best possible chance of achieving your potential. HOW? Put in enough time / effort – made sure you understood appropriate subject content and exam expectations / technique – ask teachers for guidance if unsure.
- When on Private Study – be respectful of others – you all have exams shortly – lower sixth have them now and are only likely to be in to prepare!
- EXAMS: be punctual, bring any relevant equipment, and come in full uniform.
  - During study leave, the servery in Café 6 will be closed. You may purchase goods from the Atrium café to bring up to cafe 6 – but don't waste valuable revision time.
  - The POD is being used for exams and so will not be available for use by students – it was good while it lasted!
- Celebration Brunch – next Wednesday – 10.45 am – Brunch in SF area with staff, for students. No uniform necessary. This is your final chance as a whole year-group to get together and celebrate your time at Durham Johnston (in school).

	What / Where / When
MONDAY TUESDAY WEDNESDAY THURSDAY	If you miss an A2 lesson for AS resits – catch up or your overall grade may suffer. You will be given slips by Mr Bllaca that need to be signed when returning your locker key and textbooks. Your locker needs to be emptied and left unlocked. Your key is to be handed to Mr Bllaca or Mrs Clarke who will sign for receipt. If you have lost your locker key you will need to pay £15 for a replacement lock and key. This can be handed to Mrs Clarke. Keys are to be returned before you leave on 22nd May and preferably, before this if you want to avoid a huge queue. Text books are to be returned to subject teachers after your exams and a signature obtained for receipt. Once all items have been returned Mr Wilbraham, Mr McArdle, Mrs Lennon or Mrs Clarke will sign off your form. Deadline for this – 29th June 2018.
FRIDAY	At the end of today:-
