

THIS WEEK

17th September 2018

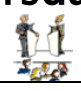

A huge thank to all students who have made this a good start to the academic year – in terms of contribution to the Sixth Form Community.

- ✓ Volunteering to mentor Year 11 students in their final GCSE year.
- ✓ Running and participating in our vibrant societies – brilliant range – get involved.
- ✓ Being mindful of the feelings of others and offering support.

Thank you

- DJCS Year 6 Open Evening – Monday 24th September 5.45pm – 7.45pm. DJ Sixth Form Open Evening – Monday 1st October. If you are a Subject Ambassador, you will be involved. We also need general guides to help visitors navigate the school – come to SF Office if you would like to help.
- Year 13 students who completed work experience / shadowing in July 2018. Your reflective report is now overdue. Mr Bllaca will have issued you with the requirements – if unsure – see Mrs Lennon. Your report will be read, kept in your file and may be referred to in UCAS and other references (in a positive way).
- Enrichment:
 - LIBF – starts this week.
 - PHE – starts this week. This week is A (first half of class), next week Z (second half of class).
 - Personal enrichment – give Mr Bllaca contact details.
 - Future Learn courses – If you are doing these – please see Mrs Clarke for Registration / Record form. I would advise against paying for a certificate, but of course, the choice is yours.
- SOCIETIES – interested? All welcome – both years – go along and see if it's for you. Year 13 – if you didn't get involved last year – it doesn't mean you can't join this year. SEE THE PROGRAMME OUTSIDE SF OFFICE FOR: day / time / location. Society leads – see Mrs Lennon if you want to get involved with Sixth Form Open Evening (for 2019 starters) Monday (1st October).
- Year 12 Hoodies – should have been ordered by now – see Mrs Clarke TODAY (MONDAY) to place an order.
