

THIS WEEK

Commencing 10th July 2023

Key Dates

This Week:

- W/c 10th July – your final report for this academic year. Entry to Year 13 courses requires the potential to succeed at full A level.
- 10th July – Head Student interviews – if you are involved – check your emails.
- 11th July – What's it like studying A levels? Year 10 event – are you involved? See email for more information.
- 13th July – Assembly – Hall – 8.25am.
- 13th July – Oxbridge – parental webinar hosted by Mr Wilbraham.

- W/c 17th July – this is Wellbeing Week for younger students and there are no subject lessons. As discussed in assembly and PHE, organise yourself with a sense of purpose. Relevant activities include:
 - Work shadowing. This links with our 'show – don't tell' theme – evidence of your interest in a given career / course.
 - EPQ – a great opportunity to make significant progress.
 - Future Learn courses.
 - NEA (coursework).
 - Getting involved, perhaps helping staff with younger pupils.
- 17th August – results of any external AS exams issued.

- REPORTS – out last Thursday – intervention interviews will continue this week – have considered targets with you.
- Are you a Subject Ambassador? – Are you ready for Tuesday's event? Come to the Hall for 8.30am – to set up for the Year 10s.
- Summer Break – to ensure you make a strong start in September:
 - Complete all the work covered in this Year 13 introductory period.
 - Revisit and consolidate this in the final week of the holidays.
 - In August, based on your results – speak to Mrs Lennon or Mr Wilbraham if you have any concerns / queries.
 - Continue with research and start drafting your Personal Statement.
 - Apply form – buzzword is Johnston. For other FAQs – see Mrs Lennon's email.
 - Any questions – see Mrs Lennon / Mr Wilbraham in SF office.
- Enrichment Week (last week of term) – make sure we have details of your intentions on the survey.

Have an excellent summer break – build in a range of activities – BALANCE is really important. Next year is crucial to your future choices – get physically, mentally, and academically ready.
